5/ In the Legislative Assembly and in the Madras Legve Council, ~~Where~~ the rules made under the Govt. of India Act are followed generally. Rule 14 of the Rules under the Govt. of India Act, which related to the language in the Assembly and in the Council being practically the same.

The Govt. of India Rule re Assembly runs thus:—

Sec. 51 of the manual } "The business of the Assembly shall be transacted in English:

Flag O Provided that the President may permit any member unacquainted with English to address the Assembly in a vernacular language". [Rule 14 of rules under Govt. of India Act]

The Madras Legve Council rule runs thus:—

Rule - 14. "The business of the Council shall be transacted in English, but any member who is not fluent in English may address the Council in any recognised vernacular of the Province, provided that the President may call on any member to speak in any language in which he is known to be proficient"

(2) The above is quoted verbatim in the Rule 51 of the Govt. Rules of Procedure in the Madras manual.

Nothing is mentioned about the language in the Mysore Legve Council & R. A. manual.
